

Continuing Professional Development Workshop

Working with the Inner Child

Led by: John Baxendale MSc, PTSTA(P), CTA(P)

Tuesday 21 August 2018 (9.30 to 4.30)

Within each of us is a part of our personality that is the child we used to be. That part often influences how we feel, what we do, and indeed, how successful we are.

We all need to develop a loving, supportive relationship with the child within us, so that that child will feel safe and supported, and bring out the creative, fun loving aspects of our character, to which others will respond positively. In this workshop participants will have the opportunity to explore their own Inner Child experience through exercises and discussion.
