

Continuing Professional Development Workshop

Official TA101, a two day Introduction to Transactional Analysis

The official introduction to Transactional Analysis

Led by: John Baxendale, MSc, PTSTA, CTA

Wednesday and Thursday 29 & 30 August 2018 (9.30 to 4.30)

This two day course is the official, internationally recognized introduction to Transactional Analysis, known as the 'TA 101'. It is the pre-requisite for further training in Transactional Analysis as a psychotherapist, counsellor or in organizational and educational settings.

This course is for anyone interested in Transactional Analysis as a method of understanding communication; "Games People Play" and personal life patterns. This course is also for people interested in using TA in their professional work.

About the Workshop leader

John is a UKCP registered psychotherapist, a Provisional Teaching and Supervising Transactional Analyst and a Certified Transactional Analyst. John has many years of experience in the caring professions in Western and Eastern Europe. He has a clinical practice at the Wealden Institute. He has an Advanced Diploma in Forensic Counselling and Psychotherapy and has an interest in working with survivors and perpetrators of abuse.
