Fascism

The Dark Side of Humanity in Current Times

Monday, 31st May 2021 (10.00 GMT to 16.30 GMT via ZOOM) All welcome!

A certificate for 6 hours CPD points will be awarded to participants

Fascism may be defined as extreme authoritarian, oppressive, or intolerant views or practices. How do we understand it? Different thinkers have different views, including Umberto Eco, Wilhelm Reich and Eric Berne. Some of these will be explored in this event.

Come and join people from around the world as we consider the dark side of humanity as it is emerging today. With Stefan Sandstrom, TSTA from Sweden and Diane Salters, TSTA from South Africa.

Hosted by John Baxendale PTSTA and Joanna Beazley Richards TSTA at Wealden Psychology Institute, South East England. Guest speakers, Stefan Sandstrom TSTA and Diane Salters TSTA
