

Continuing Professional Development Workshop
UKATA Diploma preparation workshop
Workshop held online

Led by: John Baxendale, MSc, PTSTA, Principal of Wealden College

Saturday 12 September 2020 (09.30 - 16.30)

This workshop will allow participants to prepare for all aspects of the requirements for qualifying with the UKATA Diploma in TA Practice. We will look at the written requirements, the minimum requirements in terms of hours of client and supervision hours, and importantly, the oral assessment. Participants are strongly encouraged to bring an audio segment of their work, with a transcript, in order to do some practice sessions.

About the Workshop leader

John is an accredited TA psychotherapist, a Provisional Teaching and Supervising Transactional Analyst, an accredited EMDR Practitioner and a LENS Neurofeedback practitioner. He has a clinical and supervisory practice at the Wealden Institute. He has an Advanced Diploma in Forensic Counselling and Psychotherapy and has a special interest in working with survivors and perpetrators of abuse, and with survivors of religious abuse.
